15 CONFLICT OF INTEREST

The Company understand that the members of the Syndicate and their respective Affiliates (together, the "Group") are engaged in a wide range of financial services and businesses (including investment management, financing, securities trading, corporate and investment banking and research). The members of each such Group and businesses within each such Group generally act independently of other members of their Group, both for their own account and for the account of clients. Accordingly, there may be situations where certain members of each such Group and/ or their clients either have or may in the future have interests, or take actions, which may conflict with the Company's interests. For example, each Group may, in the ordinary course of business, engage in trading in financial products or undertake other investment businesses for their own account or on behalf of other clients, including, but not limited to, trading in or holding long, short or derivative positions in securities, loans or other financial products of the Company or other entities connected with the Issue.

In recognition of the foregoing, the Company agree that each Group is not required to restrict its activities as a result of this Agreement or the Memorandum of Understanding, and that each member of the respective Groups may undertake any business activity without further consultation with or notification to the Company. Neither this Agreement, the Memorandum of Understanding nor the receipt by a member of the Syndicate of confidential information nor any other matter shall give rise to any fiduciary, equitable or contractual duties (including without limitation any duty of trust or confidence) that would prevent or restrict its Group from acting on behalf of other customers or for its own account. Furthermore, the Company acknowledge that each of the members of the Syndicate and their respective Affiliates may have fiduciary or other relationships whereby the respective member of the Syndicate and its Affiliates may exercise voting power over securities of various persons, which securities may from time to time include securities of the Company, potential purchasers of Equity Shares or others with interests in respect of the Issue. The Company acknowledge that each of the members of the Syndicate and their respective Affiliates may exercise such powers and perform its other functions in connection with such fiduciary or other relationships without regard to the relationship of the respective member of the Syndicate to the Company under this Agreement or the Memorandum of Understanding. Furthermore, the Company agree that neither such Group nor any member or business of such Group is under a duty to disclose to the Company or use on behalf of the Company any information whatsoever about or derived from those activities or to account for any revenue or profits obtained in connection with such activities. However, consistent with each Group's long-standing practice to hold in confidence the affairs of its customers, each such Group will not disclose confidential information obtained from the Company in connection with the Issue except in connection with its services to, and its relationship with, the Company (except as provided under Clause 8).

The Parties will use their best reasonable efforts to negotiate and implement a substitute provision which is valid and enforceable and which as nearly as possible provides the Parties with the benefits of the invalid or unenforceable provision.

17 ASSIGNMENT

This Agreement shall be binding on and ensure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors. The Parties shall not, without the prior written consent of the other Parties, assign or transfer any of their respective rights or obligations under this Agreement to any other person, provided however, that the BRLM may assign or transfer its rights under this Agreement to an Affiliate without the consent of the other Parties.
